INCOMING!

Miss JANUARY

Described by comedian Harith Iskander as having an "astonishingly angelic voice and deliciously devilish personality", Janet Lee will blow you away with her talents...

Describe yourself as a singer.

I'm a sensuous person standing next to the piano and singing, a light mezzo soprano with a repertoire consisting of opera, jazz standards and pop. Sopranos are female singers who sing in the highest range. Compared to other girls singing soprano, my chest register is more developed...

Amen! And if you could blow any wind

instrument to create a "soprano"

..... can, hang on, clarinet or flute? What's my sound? [deep thinking] I'll blow a flute!

What if you actually became a musical instrument...

A cello!

And how would this cello like to be played?

With soul and tenderness...

Now that's music, baby! Ever get tempted to upstage the main star because you're more beautiful and talented?

It's always like that! But if you wanna keep your job and keep getting more jobs, you gotta do the professional thing - be humble and ethical lah. If you do the upstaging thing, the show is spoilt and the audience can see that the chemistry is all en[je]h! An example is a singer crooned by three equally good songstressess trying to outshout each other!

What's the strangest thing you've ever done on stage?

I explored singing cross-gender roles such as Cherubino in Mozart's The Marriage Of Figaro. Cherubino is a naughty, flirtatious page boy who talks annoyingly about being young and in love, so I dressed up as a boy with tight pants and a trenchcoat to sing his song. However, less than half of the people in the hall understood. Or maybe they liked you better as a girl! What's the sexiest thing you've ever put on?

I was singing backup vocals for Deanna Yusoff at an FI party and wore tight and very revealing white shorts, a bohemian top and stiletto! But you have to stress that I'm a singer who learns and does her research. I'm not a bimbo who can just sing and wear a sexy dress. I'm a brainy! ▶

'Sex to me is a combination of sexual attraction and that little spiritual thing in the partner'

Your name card states "I don't sing because I'm happy; I'm happy because I sing."

There are moments when I sing and remind myself of how much really like music. I am a soul doctor. A bird does not sing because it has an answer, it sings because it has a song in it! Err... what's the question again?

It's... why do women sing after having fantastic sex?

Oh, do you know anyone like that? I would like to interview her! Your conventional sex would be the afterglow cuddling and going through that euphoria thing after orgasm!

That's not enough, is it? How do you celebrate great sex?

I would just relish the wonderful chemistry of what just happened. Sex to me is a combination of sexual attraction and that little spiritual thing in the partner...

Ohhh... kay... What's the wildest thing your "devilish personality" has made you do?

Have sex in a resort pool, with people swimming past!

Are you telling us you did the nasty without all those people noticing?

We were so good! Tell your readers to go try it. But don't dirty the pool...

Catch Janet Lee in the upcoming MI: The Opera.
